Dedication

We dedicate the 1967 Stiletto to Coach Clifford Vandeventer who during the past years spent countless hours creating one of the best football teams in the history of L. H. S. Through his patience and guidance, he developed spirited young men with the eagerness and the skill needed to bring victory to their school.

When the team was plagued by extraordinary difficulties and the members were inclined to give up, Coach Vandeventer brought them back to life with the words, "You did your best, so continue playing to the maximum of your ability, and in the end you will succeed." Although the Lions did not reach the playoffs, we at L. H. S. knew that they were champions in the truest sense of the word.

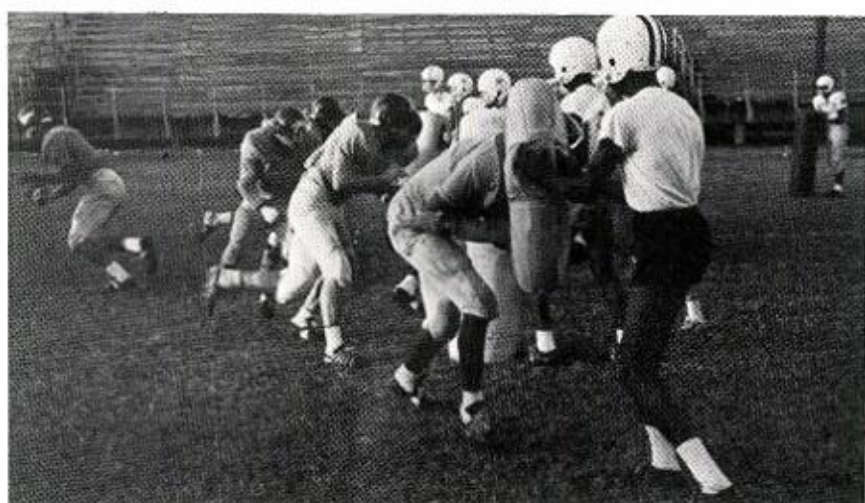

For all this help and unlimited service, we express our appreciation to Coach Clifford Vandeventer through the 1967 Stiletto. We hope that this yearbook will help everyone realize the great contribution he has made to the lives of students and teachers at L. H. S.

ACTIVITIES

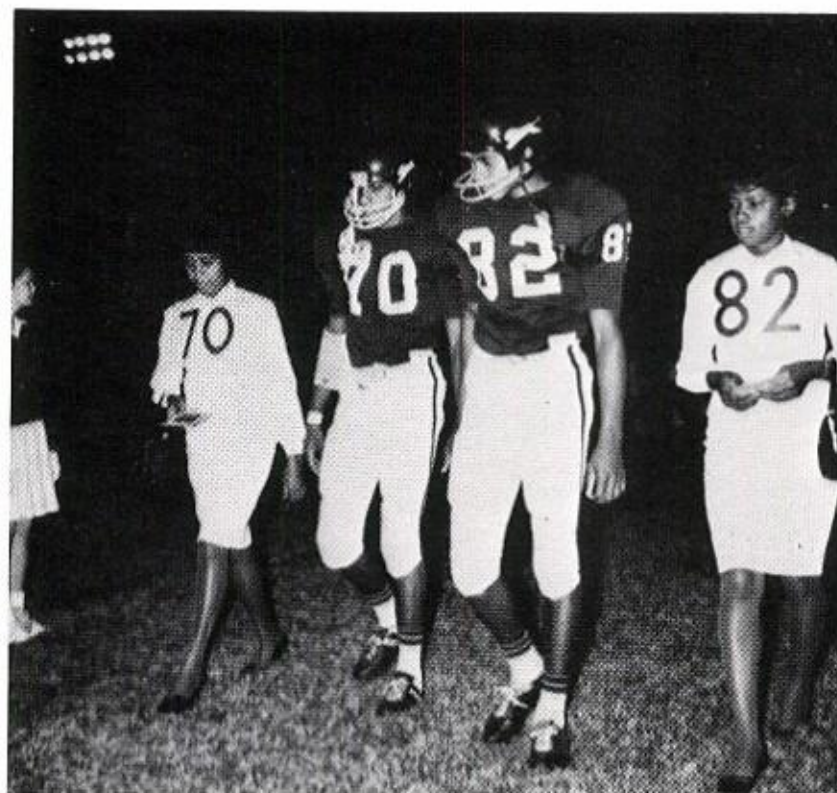

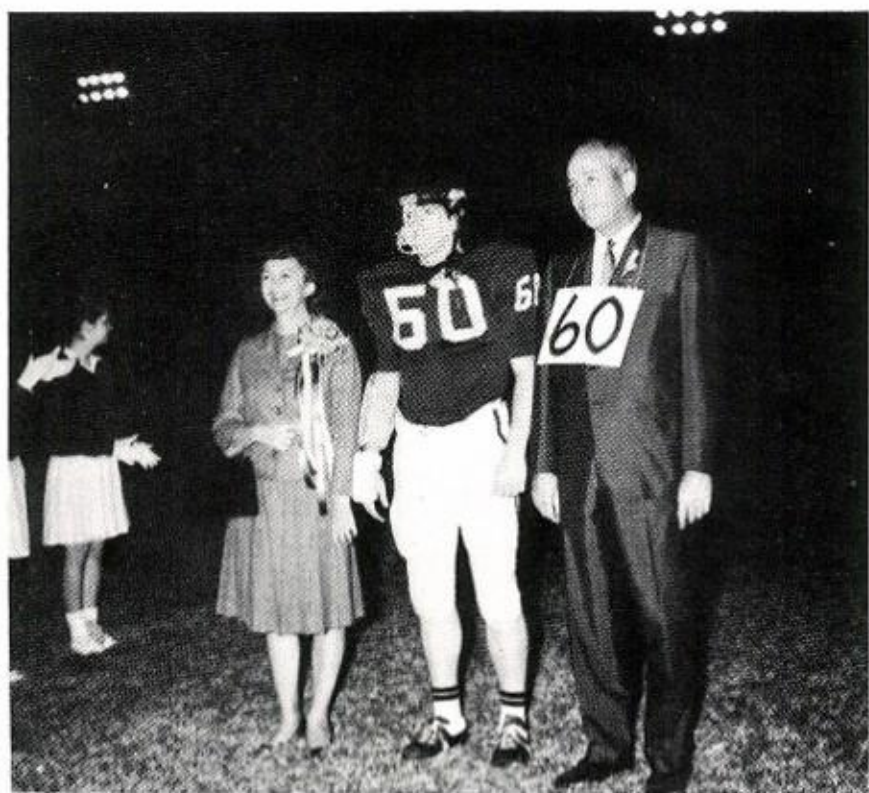

Homecoming At L.H.S.

Homecoming at Lockhart High School began with a bon-fire on November 4.

Before the game on November 11, the parents of the football boys and the football sweetheart, Mary Kay Richards, were presented.

Then, at half time, the presentation of the band King and Queen, James McConnell and Karen Simon, and the recognition of the band seniors climaxed the evening.

Diane and Christy rehearse for "Sisters McIntosh."

Cast and crew of "A Cup of Tea" take time out for a pose.

Drama Class Entertains With Many Productions

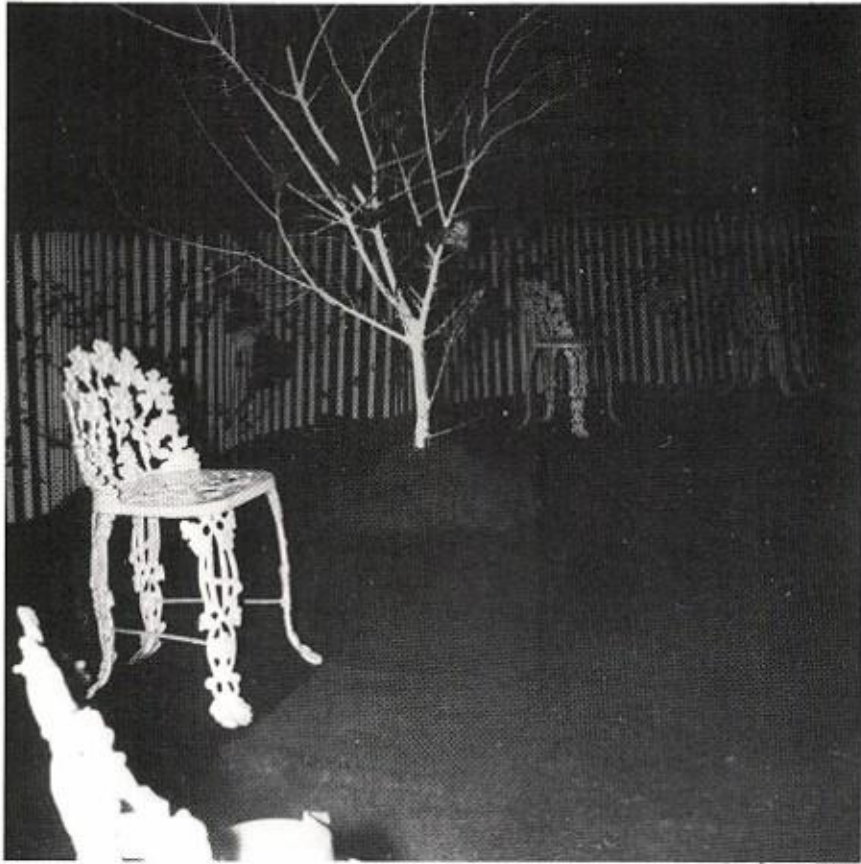

Characters in "Twelve O'Clock Murder" relax during rehearsal.

Drama students work hard for their production of "So Early In the Morning."

The Sweetheart Dance

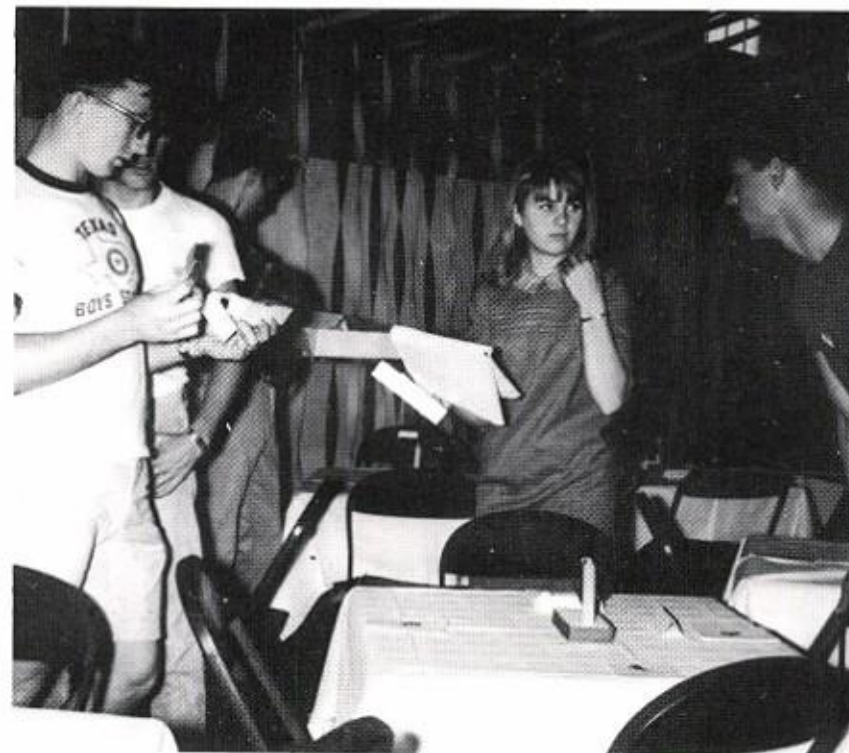

The colors and theme of the dance were carried out on the stage through the use of large tissue flowers and sweetheart trees.

Including the ceiling, the whole gym was adorned with crepe paper and balloons.

Members of the Student Council worked hard decorating Adam's gym.

Doak, Phyllis, and Fred reviewed the ticket list while arranging place cards.

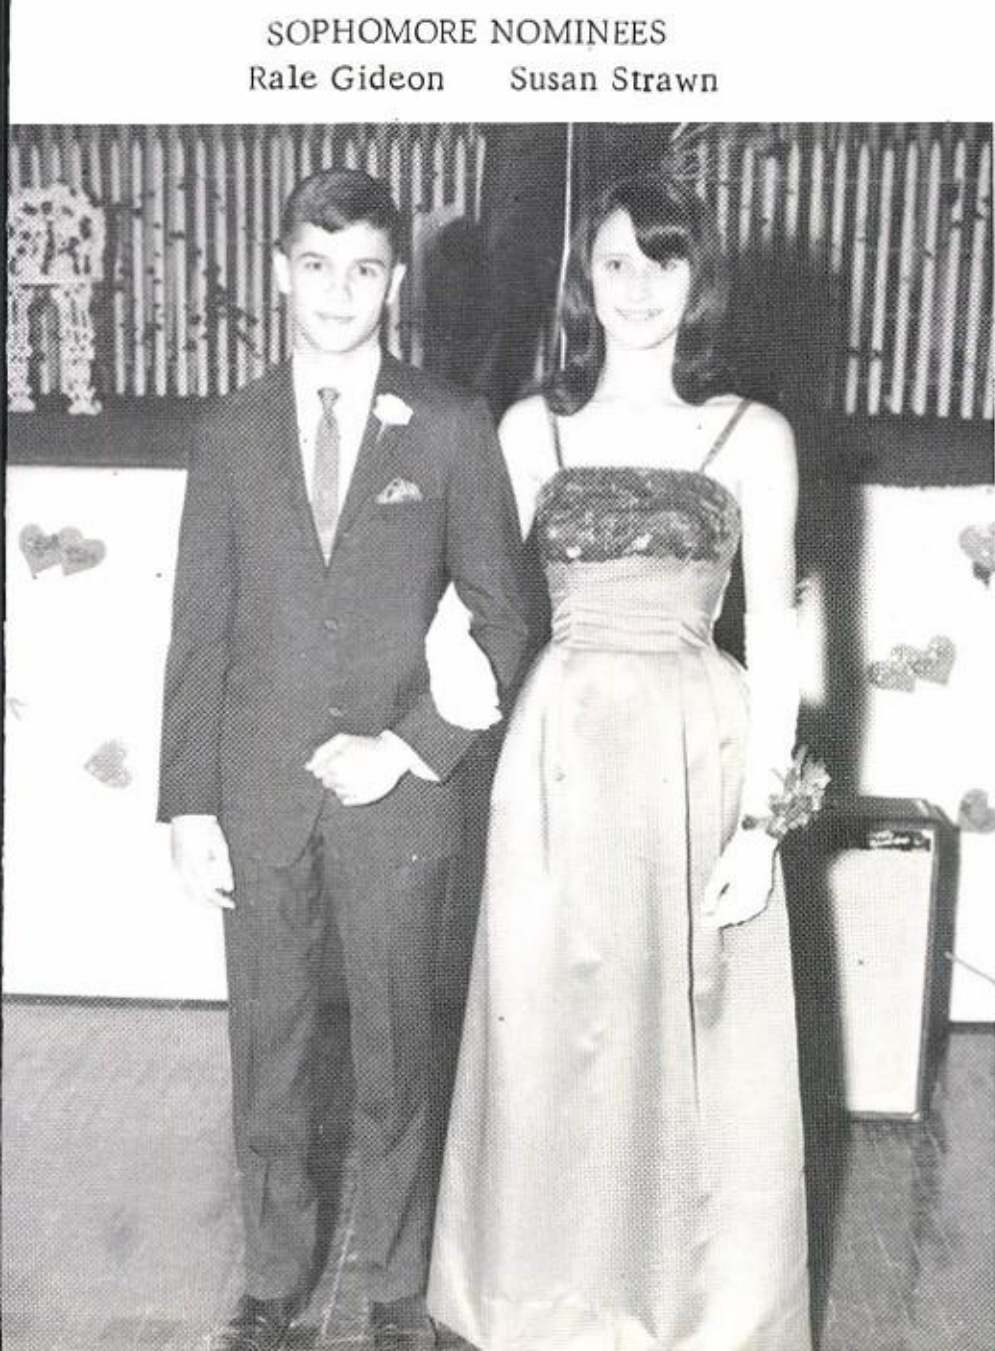

The big moment during the dance was the crowning of King Bill and Queen Phyllis by Fred Moore, the Student Council President.

Athletes And Coaches Honored At Banquet

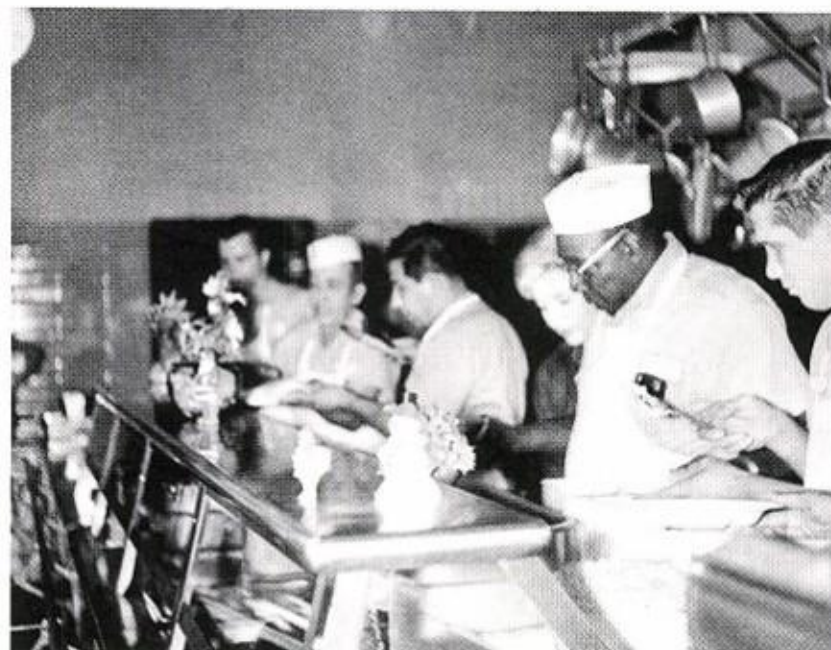

On December 19, 1966, the Quarterback Club sponsored an elaborate banquet honoring the athletes of Lockhart High School and Junior High School. A few members of the Maroon Jackets decorated the elementary school's cafeteria and served the delicious barbecue chicken dinner. After dinner, the coaches presented awards to the boys for outstanding service and skill. A former quarterback at the University of Texas, Mr. T. Jones, ended the evening with an inspiring speech.

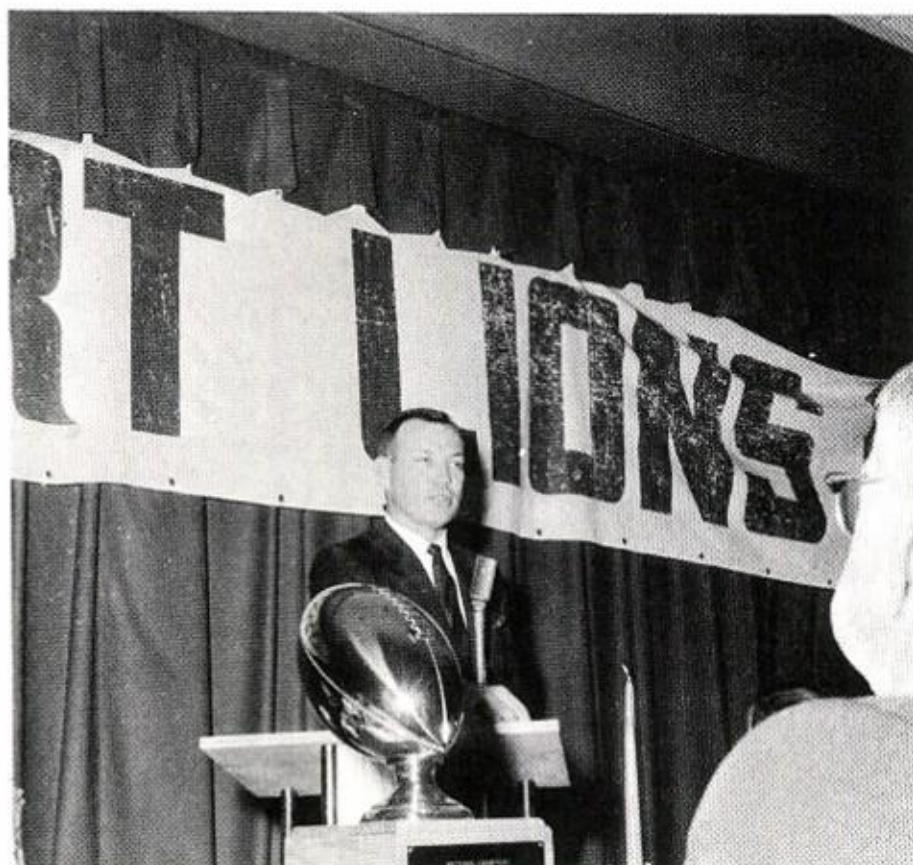

Members of the Maroon Jackets provided a beautifully decorated cafeteria.

Cheerleaders presented hard-earned trophies to the many players.

Employees of Black's Barbecue prepared a wonderful chicken dinner.

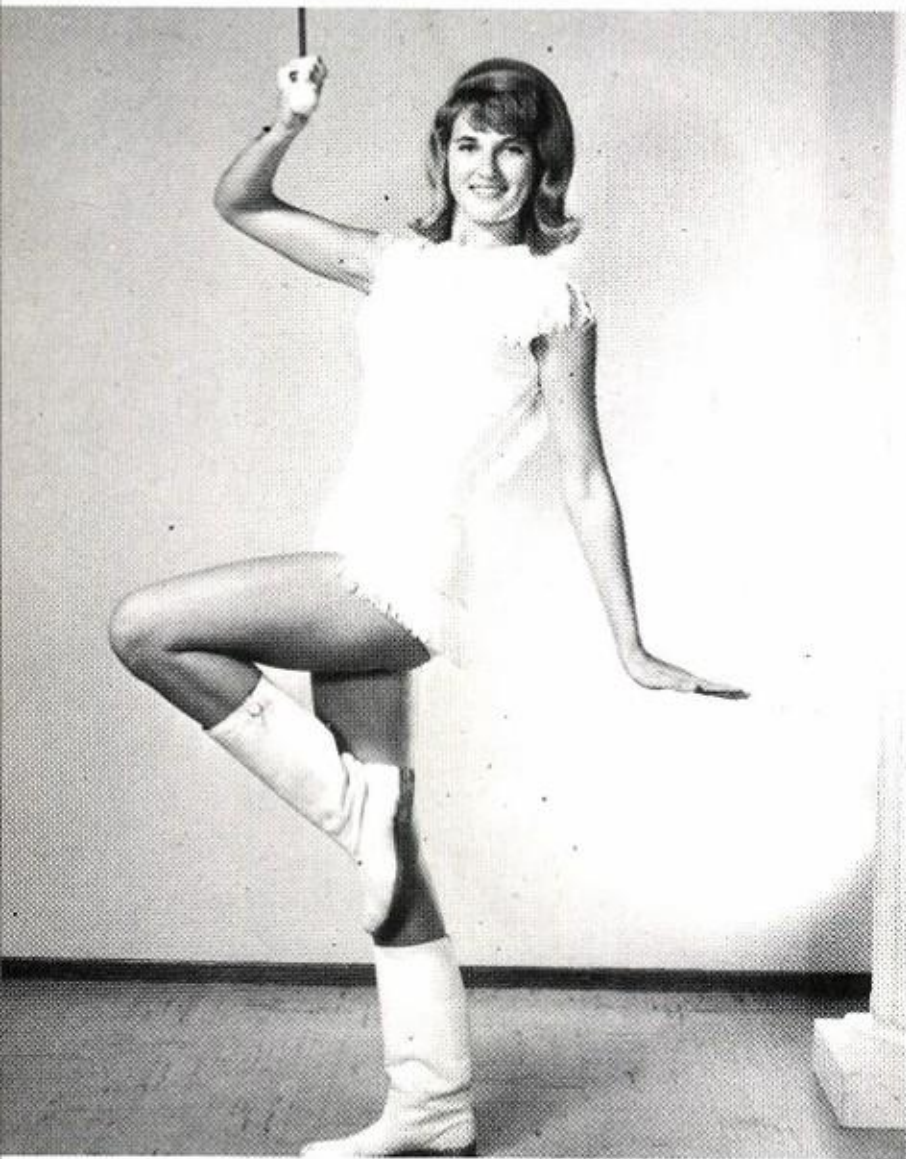

Mr. T. Jones was the guest speaker and delivered an entertaining message.

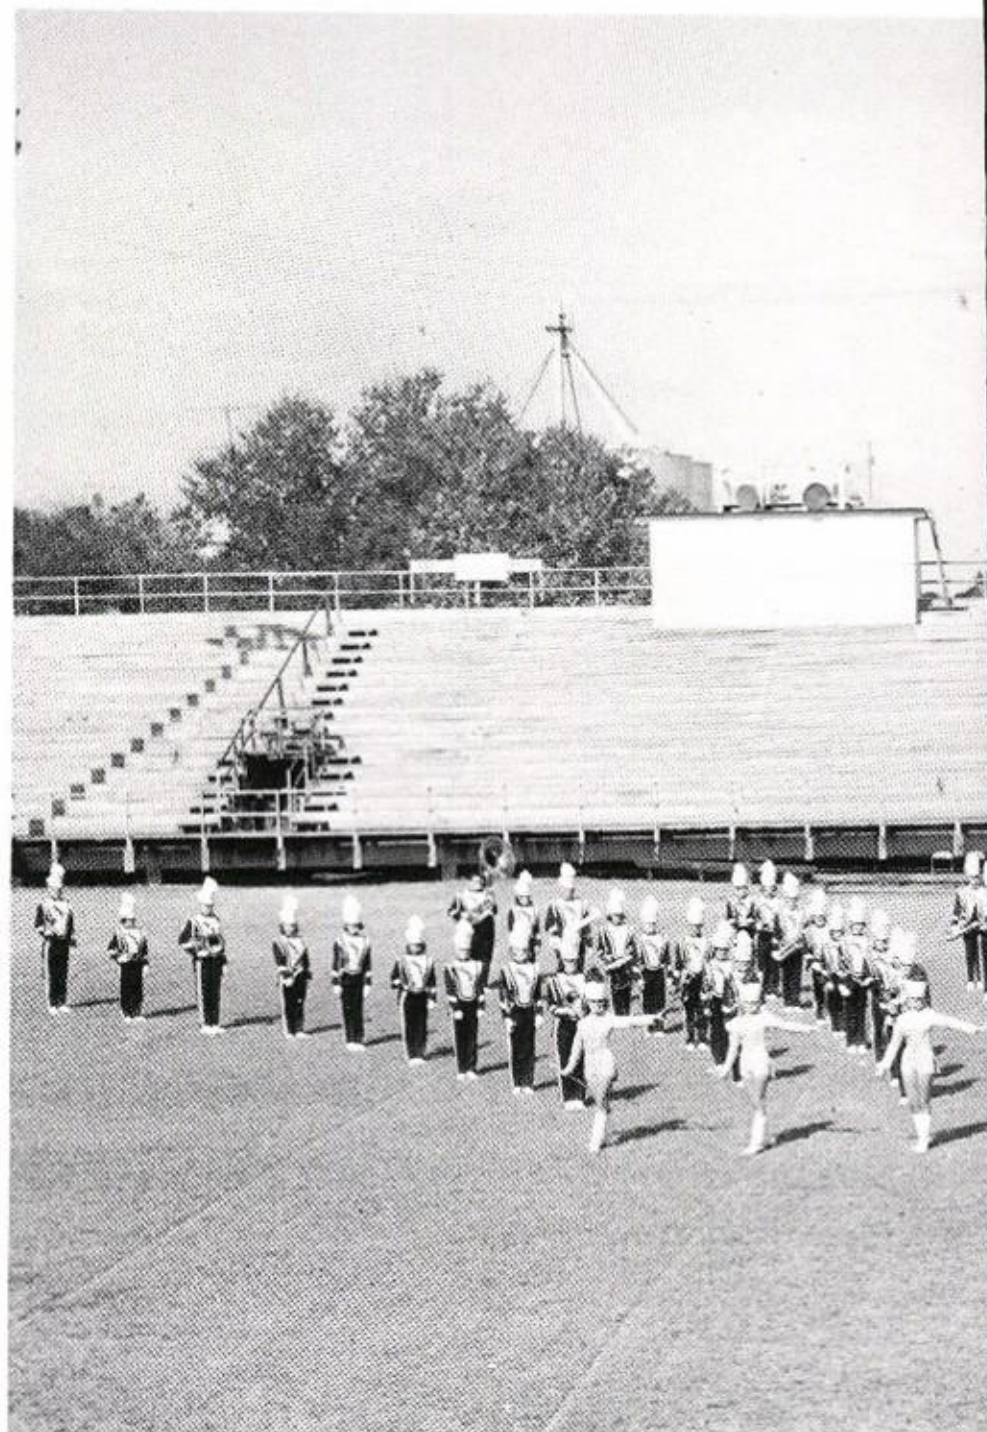

Coach Vandeventer reviewed the season's sports record.

FROM THE BEGINNING

This year has been a long and somewhat terrifying period for the Freshman of 1966-1967. They entered their first year of high school with an uneasy, anxious feeling. Now that this year has come to an end, they, as well as the seniors who are leaving, have come to know and love this school.

These Freshmen are leaving room for the next brave group, who will be entering with the feeling which every student of LHS has had once in his twelve or more years of school life. The feeling which most Freshmen have is that of being anxious to get their high school days over, but the Seniors have a somewhat different feeling, a feeling of regret that they are graduating.

Now time has passed, and those who were Freshmen have become Seniors. The four years have passed, and goals that were once set for graduation from Lockhart High School now lead to broader horizons. The many football games, dances, and suppers that were once highlights of our days have faded into pleasant memories that we will always treasure. The tests and the homework have all been completed, and our books await the seniors of next year.

As we now depart and go our separate ways - to college, to work, to the armed services, or to marriage, - we look anxiously ahead to the future. But as we look back over these pages, we hope that they will help us remember that these were the happiest days of our lives.

TO THE END
